

Enrichment Programme Nomination Form

If your child exhibits behaviours and characteristics associated with above-average ability, high levels of task commitment, and/or high levels of creativity, please complete and give to the school administration (office) upon enrolment or if applicable, at a later date. This will be passed on to the school SENCO (Special Education Needs COordinator) A time will be organized with you to see the GATE coordinator and classroom teacher to discuss this further.

Child's Name:					Date:
My Child at Home	Always	Frequently	Sometimes	Not Yet	Form Completed By: (print name)
					Relationship: Mother Father Grandparent Caregiver
Is intensely curious, asks lots of questions, is very observant.					My son/daughter's areas of strength are: intellectual, creative, social, physical e.g maths, literacy, science, computers, music, drama, dance, sports, cultural, leadership, art, technology. My child would benefit with support in: Our family identifies with the following culture:
Learns quickly and has a very good memory.
Has an extensive vocabulary.
Concentrates intently on an activity for sustained periods of time.
Enjoys reading and reads a lot.
Is highly creative or imaginative.
Demonstrates a developed sense of humour.
Writes stories, poems or is a storyteller at home.
Organises games and activities for others.
Has a personal sensitivity and compassion for others.
Has a strong sense of cultural identity.
Has strength in cultural language, dance or cultural skills.
Has a strong sense of justice.
Is confident and can make appropriate decisions.
Is organized and plans and uses time well.
Sets and strives to maintain personal high standards.
Is passionate about an area of interest. (What is this?)
Is confident, outgoing, social.
Out of School Activities:
Sport	Music/Arts	Clubs			Extra Tuition			